Sisters – after Utøya

In 2011, 17 year old Cathrine and her sister Elisabeth go together to Camp Utøya, to make new friends, discuss politics and dream about the future. The first few days are filled with laughter and joy. But then the unimaginable happens – and only one of the two sisters return home. Ten years have passed since the tragedy on Utøya. This is Cathrine's story about the days before, during, and after the events that changed both her, and the country, forever. It is a story of grief, hope, and a new future.
