All I Stand to Lose

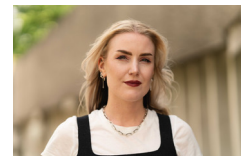

Oliver thinks a lot. He thinks about how big the universe really is, how he can become as good a drummer as Scott Travis, how much guts it takes to wear a Judas Priest T-shirt to school, the gravity of a black hole, where he comes from, and how high his grades can get.

But most of all, Oliver thinks about Jakub—and how terrifying it feels to be in love with him.

A sharply observed coming-of-age story about music, identity, and love—this is a stand-alone companion to the acclaimed novel I Regret Nothing by the same author.

Ida Therese Klungland

Ida Therese Klungland (b. 1991) has a MA in practical literature, and years of teaching experience from various secondary schools. She debuted as an author in 2021 with "Cybjørg", and is now writing full time. She also writes and produces music.
