

Gunnar Garfors

Books written by renowned hobby traveller Gunnar Garfors!

Gunnar Garfors

Beyond the Beaten Path: Eastern Norway

Gunnar Garfors

Beyond the Beaten Path: Western Norway

Gunnar Garfors

Beyond the Beaten Path

Gunnar Garfors

Elsewhere

SKALD FORLAG

BOOKS FROM NORWAY

Skald forlag 2023
272 pages
Original title: Bortom allfarveg Austlandet
88 fabelaktige reisetips
ISBN: 9788279593553

FOREIGN RIGHTS

Skald forlag
P. O. Box 61
NO-6861 Leikanger
Tel: +47 57 65 41 55
simone@skald.no
www.skald.no

OTHER TITLES

Between the Lines. Life and Death Along the Equator and the Polar Circles
Beyond the Beaten Path. 81 travel tips for a spectacular Norwegian holiday
Beyond the Beaten Path: Western Norway. 99 travel tips for a brilliant vacation
Elsewhere. The world's least visited countries

Gunnar Garfors

Beyond the Beaten Path: Eastern Norway 88 fabulous travel tips

Join travel expert Gunnar Garfors on a trip and be inspired! This time the trip goes to Eastern Norway, an "underdog" when it comes to Norwegian holidays. Many have made the pilgrimage to the fjords and mountains of Western Norway and the fantastic nature of Northern Norway, while the more eastern destinations have been left as hidden gems on a string. The travel destinations are suitable for day trips, weekend trips or week-long holidays.

The book challenges the image we have of Eastern Norway as a holiday destination, and tempts us to travel to places most of us would never find on our own. Eastern Norway is so much more than the capital and Hemsedal, and Garfors shows the way to world-class restaurants, spectacular nature and cultural experiences and accommodation like no other – guaranteed to be free from queues and crowds.

Beyond the Beaten Path: Eastern Norway is the third in a series of books that aims to inspire travel both domestically and internationally.

"I'm so proud, and I'm so happy that Gunnar has written this book. We travel to Italy, read up to find the good places, and then we have it here in Norway."

- Wenche Andersen, TV2 God morgen Norge

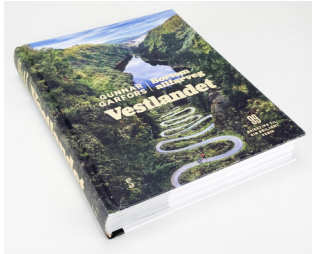

"The book is packed with pictures and vivid storytelling, as we know Gunnar Garfors is good at. If you're looking for a short vacation, perhaps this is a book you should browse through before you decide."

- Sigmund Krøvel-Velle, Hallingdølen

Gunnar Garfors

Gunnar Garfors (born 29 May 1975) is a Norwegian media professional, traveller, and author. He has worked with broadcasting and new media developments since 2001. Garfors has visited every country in the world and is the youngest hobby traveller to have done so. He is also the first to visit every country twice.

Skald forlag

Gunnar Garfors

Beyond the Beaten Path: Western Norway 99 travel tips for a brilliant vacation

Skald forlag 2022
320 pages
Original title: Bortom allfarveg Vestlandet
99 reisetips til ein briljant ferie
ISBN: 9788279593393

FOREIGN RIGHTS

Skald forlag
P. O. Box 61
NO-6861 Leikanger
Tel: +47 57 65 41 55
simone@skald.no
www.skald.no

OTHER TITLES

Between the Lines. Life and Death Along the Equator and the Polar Circles
Beyond the Beaten Path. 81 travel tips for a spectacular Norwegian holiday
Beyond the Beaten Path: Eastern Norway. 88 fabulous travel tips
Elsewhere. The world's least visited countries

In the smash hit and bestseller from 2021, Beyond the Beaten Path renowned travel expert Gunnar Garfors took us on an adventurous journey of discovery throughout Norway. In this sequel, we travel to Western Norway in search of exciting and unknown experiences in a class of its own.

It is teeming with spectacular and untouched nature, beautiful architecture, unique accommodations and restaurants that serve world-class food and drink. But even Westerners have much to discover in their own part of the country, because much of what Norway's perhaps most travel-loving author invites us to is a well-kept secret for most people.

With Beyond the Main Road, Western Norway, it is possible to plan a complete Western Norway holiday, whether you want to travel alone, with family and friends or want to take your sweetheart on a romantic getaway. How about a deer-roaring safari, sleeping in hammocks and exclusive designer cabins combined with cider tasting by the Sognefjord on a warm summer evening?

In recent years, we have become increasingly interested in our own country, and there is much to suggest that the trend is permanent. Yes, we will travel abroad again, but perhaps more on long trips, while for shorter trips we will probably choose what is close by. By replacing weekend trips to London, Paris and New York with trips to Ulvik, Solvorn or Bremanger, we not only cut emissions – the experiences can certainly compete with what we are used to.

"The travel tips are varied, humorous and informative, and provide insight both inside and behind the scenes. You not only get to know what time the chef opens the kitchen, but also why she opened it and what her plans are for the future."

- Eivind Myklebust, Bokmagasinet

"Garfors' latest book is tasteful in every way and gives good tips for trips and experiences. [...] It is entirely possible to plan both day trips, weekend trips and long holidays with these tips – and preferably the book – in your luggage."

- Mette Bleken, Hardanger folkeblad

Skald forlag

Gunnar Garfors

Gunnar Garfors (born 29 May 1975) is a Norwegian media professional, traveller, and author. He has worked with broadcasting and new media developments since 2001. Garfors has visited every country in the world and is the youngest hobby traveller to have done so. He is also the first to visit every country twice.

Skald 2021
320 pages
Original title: Bortom allfarveg
81 reisetips til ein spektakulær noregsferie
ISBN: 9788279593300

FOREIGN RIGHTS

Skald forlag
P. O. Box 61
NO-6861 Leikanger
Tel: +47 57 65 41 55
simone@skald.no
www.skald.no

OTHER TITLES

Between the Lines. Life and Death Along the Equator and the Polar Circles
Beyond the Beaten Path: Western Norway. 99 travel tips for a brilliant vacation
Beyond the Beaten Parth: Eastern Norway. 88 fabulous travel tips
Elsewhere. The world's least visited countries

Skald forlag

Gunnar Garfors

Beyond the Beaten Path 81 travel tips for a spectacular Norwegian holiday

Serial globetrotter Gunnar Garfors took advantage of the pandemic to travel around his own country on a quest to discover hidden gems. His goal was to inspire his readers to travel differently; Instead of seeking the same crowded sights as everyone else, he has travelled «everywhere» in Norway to uncover little known islands, mountains, villages, eateries and public houses.

By speaking extensively to locals, he has collected interesting and often funny tales about the 268 destinations across three books. The first book of the trilogy became an instant hit and topped the Norwegian bestseller list for months. Both sequels also did very well, riding high on the same top list for weeks. The first book covers the entire country whereas the last two focus on the West Coast and the Eastern Country, respectively. All books come with hundreds of stunning photos from the stunningly beautiful country that has no shortage of natural wonders, incredible boutique hotels or world class restaurants.

The books can be published separately as they are, or combined as a «best of»-edition.

If you are not inspired to travel in Norway after reading this book, then I'm afraid you have run your course. Recommended.

- Odd Roar Lange, The Travel Inspector

Garfors is down-to-earth and unassuming, in contrast to the influencer movement that offers mostly itself [...] He has really put in the work, and he offers fresh produce.

- Arne Dvergsdal, Dagbladet

It is the wonderful stories from each place that make this a book worth reading. Garfors listens to his host and brings out exciting anecdotes and festive curiosities.

- Runar Larsen, Magasinet Reiselyst

With this masterpiece of a book, with beautiful pictures and intimate stories from local people, you are guaranteed to be inspired... and you will definitely dream away.

- Heidi Risbråthe, Din fritid

It is a pleasure to browse and read Gunnar Garfor's latest book [...] so many details, so many good pictures, and so much insight into the places visited, that it is a delight for both the reading eye and the visual eye. [...] Set off and take "Bortom allfarveg" with you in your backpack.

- Jørn-Kr. Jørgensen, Bokstaver.no

Gunnar Garfors

Gunnar Garfors (born 29 May 1975) is a Norwegian media professional, traveller, and author. He has worked with broadcasting and new media developments since 2001. Garfors has visited every country in the world and is the youngest hobby traveller to have done so. He is also the first to visit every country twice.

Skald 2019
416 pages
Original title: Ingenstad
På tur til verdens minst besøkte land
ISBN: 9788279592907

FOREIGN RIGHTS

Skald forlag
P. O. Box 61
NO-6861 Leikanger
Tel: +47 57 65 41 55
simone@skald.no
www.skald.no

RIGHTS SOLD TO

English edition, Broken sleep books
Hungarian edition, Cserkiado

OTHER TITLES

Between the Lines. Life and Death Along the Equator and the Polar Circles
Beyond the Beaten Path. 81 travel tips for a spectacular Norwegian holiday
Beyond the Beaten Path: Western Norway. 99 travel tips for a brilliant vacation
Beyond the Beaten Path: Eastern Norway. 88 fabulous travel tips

Skald forlag

Gunnar Garfors

Elsewhere The world's least visited countries

How is it to be a tourist in Yemen, Turkmenistan, Nauru or Mauritania? Globetrotter Gunnar Garfors has been to all the 198 countries of the world – twice. On his journeys he is driven by curiosity and has met people from many different cultures and societies. Garfors' mild and open disposition helps him to easily get in touch with locals wherever he is.

In Elsewhere he shares his experiences from the 20 countries people are least likely to travel to, according to his own research around the world. The author skilfully blends his experiences in an easy and entertaining read. You will get close and personal with people, including a very open and cheerful prime minister, the world's best chocolate maker and a mango farmer from Yemen.

At a time characterized by conflict and war, Garfors wants to inspire us to get to know parts of the world that differ from ours, places that many are reluctant to travel to. A wider understanding of other cultures, faiths and worldviews may change how you perceive the world. Perhaps the globe we live on could become a better and more beautiful place if more of us challenged our comfort zones.

Elsewhere takes you to some of the most fascinating places on earth. Enjoy from the safety of your chair or find inspiration to travel elsewhere yourself.

Foreign sales (licensed): Great Britain, Hungary

Ingenstad is both funny, informative and thought-provoking. Most of all, it is a refreshing contrast to the world press's seemingly eternal pursuit of tragedy. It is first-class travel literature that will hopefully make you look at the world through a new filter.

- Runar Larsen, Magasinet Reiselyst

There is a lot of fascinating material here. This must be a man with more than the normal amount of courage.

- Paul Odland, Dagen

This book can help give the reader a broader understanding of other cultures, faiths and worldviews and do something about how one sees the world.

- Liv Astrid Skåre Langnes, framtida.no

We should be grateful that Garfors shares the world with us readers. We gain insight that makes us both happy and sad – but also hopeful.

Garfors is a bridge builder who takes us on the journey. I look forward to delving a little deeper into Ingenstad.

- Mette Bleken, Hardanger Folkeblad

Gunnar Garfors

Gunnar Garfors (born 29 May 1975) is a Norwegian media professional, traveller, and author. He has worked with broadcasting and new media developments since 2001. Garfors has visited every country in the world and is the youngest hobby traveller to have done so. He is also the first to visit every country twice.

